Standard terms and conditions for advertising in newspapers and magazines and their electronic editions

1. Insertion Order
"Insertion Order" means the contract for the publication of any advertisement in a printed or electronic edition of the "Customer" (in digital media) of the publisher, agency (hereinafter the "Publisher") for purposes of disseminating the advertisement. Insertion Orders shall be subject to the Standard Terms and Conditions together with the applicable rate cards and technical specifications for advertising.

- 2.1. An advertisement may consist of one or more of the following elements:
 - an image or text, sound sequences and moving images;
 - a sensitive area which, when clicked, links to another Customer or third party information via an online and mobile address specified by the Customer;
- 2.2. Advertisements which are not recognizable as such because of the layout shall be identified as advertisements.
- 2.3. As a rule, the format listed on the applicable rate card may be used for publication of advertisements. Special ad formats may be permitted subject to consultation and review by the Publisher.
- 3. Conclusion of contract and booking terms
- 3.1. Contracts may be concluded for each individual advertisement or for a given number of advertisements. Contracts may stipulate fixed dates for individual publications or individual orders may be settled on demand over a given period; cf. section 4.
- 3.2. Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the contract shall generally require:
 - the offer to conclude a contract submitted by the Customer in text form;
 - and acceptance of the order by virtue of the Publisher's order confirmation in text form or by virtue of publication of the advertisement. Confirmations given orally or by phone shall not be legally binding.
- 3.3. To the extent advertising agencies place orders, and subject to any other agreements in writing, the contract shall be formed with the advertising agency itself. I.e., the advertising agency shall be the Publisher's counterpart pursuant to these Standard Terms and Conditions. Orders by advertising agencies or brokers shall only be accepted for advertisements designated and identifiable by name. The Publisher may request a discount agreement from the advertiser. An original copy of the letter of engagement and also submit proof of its agency status.

3.4. Invoicing shall be effected based on the rate card or Publisher's calculation. Invoicing for the advertising delivered shall be based on the ad impressions (AdA) according to the Publisher's ad server. An AdA is defined as a server request for an advertisement from the Publisher's ad server.

- 4. Settlement period
- 4.1. To the extent a contract is concluded for a number of advertisements, these must be requested for publication within one year from the date of conclusion of the contract. In the event of a written request, the entire order must be settled within one year from the date of the first advertisement's publication, provided the first advertisement was requested and published within the discount period set in sentence 1. If the one-year period specified in sentence 1 or sentence 2 is not complied with, the Customer shall reimburse the Publisher for the difference between the discount period and the actual period corresponding to the number of advertisements actually placed, subject to other legal obligations, see section 11.5.
- 4.2. If the Customer terminates the contract during the settlement period for a given contract, the Publisher will assume that the former agency has transferred to the new agency the contractual relationship with all rights and obligations and is subject to available capacity. In the event of a failure to object to further settlement of the contract with the new agency shall constitute consent thereto by the Publisher.

5. Postponement
Postponing the agreed commencement of a campaign may only be effected in text form up to five business days by 2.00 pm prior to the next agreed publication date and is subject to available capacity. The current conditions and rates published online shall apply with respect to the new insertion dates.

- 6. Increase of the Insertion Order
- 6.1. In the context of advertising contracts, the Customer may wish to increase the period agreed or specified in the contract and to use available capacity, submit further ad requests in text form even exceeding the volume specified in the respective Insertion Order, provided the Publisher confirms this in text form.
- 7. Cancellation
- 7.1. Insertion Orders may be cancelled in text form and at no charge only up to no later than the date of the advertisement's scheduled publication. Cancellation orally or by phone is not permitted.
- 8. Publication period, positioning data and rotation
- 8.1. The publication period is defined individually based on the impressions booked or based on the period booked and the impressions booked.
- 8.2. The Customer shall have no claim to any specific positioning of the advertisement on the digital medium. The Customer and the Publisher shall jointly agree on the positioning of the advertisement. This cannot be achieved, to the extent possible, by the use of discretion, taking into account the Customer's interests as far as possible. If the Customer has expressed a preference as to the positioning of the advertisement on the digital medium booked by it, the confirmation of the Publisher, in the scope specified in the order, shall be controlling.

- 8.3. If several advertisements are delivered for a booking, the Publisher shall rotate them on a standard basis, unless the Customer has provided the Publisher an advertising schedule setting out when which advertisement is to be published.
- 8.4. Positioning of the advertisement is to be agreed.

- 9.1. The Customer shall submit to the Publisher by e-mail complete and appropriate information for targeting (URL, ALT text and appropriate keywords) in the final digital form no later than 5 business days prior to the agreed first publication date for spreads and all instances of advertising, the applicable period shall be 10 business days.
- 9.2. If the files are stored on the Customer's server or a third-party server, the Customer must ensure that the files are available and unencumbered conditions, the URL of the advertisement to be inserted.
- 9.3. Any variations herefrom shall be promptly co-ordinated with the Publisher in text form. The Customer shall be responsible for any mutandis for the addresses specified by the Customer and to which the advertisement is to refer.
- 9.4. The Publisher shall request replacements for any clearly inappropriate or defective advertisements. If the advertisement is not provided in proper form, specifically if it is supplied late or subsequently changed, the Publisher shall not warrant for the agreed dissemination thereof, and in particular shall not warrant for attainment of the booked AdA.
- 9.5. If after the aforementioned periods have expired, the Customer wishes to replace or change the advertisement or deviate from any existing advertising schedule, then the Publisher shall check whether such changes can still be made in view of the originally scheduled publication date. If this is not the case, the terms originally agreed shall continue to apply.
- 9.6. The number of delivered advertisements or requests to change the advertisements or those provided by notification of the URL must be reasonably proportioned to the booked media service, taking industry standards into account; the assessment of reasonableness shall be made by the Publisher. The Publisher shall notify the Customer and to the extent possible, the advertiser.
- 9.7. The Publisher assumes no liability for the delivered advertisement or any other materials nor is it under any obligation to return them to the Customer. The Customer shall be responsible to archive the advertisements indefinitely.
- 9.8. The Customer shall be responsible for any technical errors, reasonable errors, in order to arrange for a replacement booking by a third party, the Customer shall be liable to any compensation equivalent to the agreed fee.
- 10. Right to reject, retract or suspend publication of the advertisement

- 10.1. The Publisher may terminate Insertion Orders until such time as the Customer has accepted the advertisement in text form and the Customer approves it. The Publisher therefore reserves the right to reject advertisements as well as individual ad requests under a given Insertion Order, unless the Customer has agreed otherwise.
 - the content thereof infringes the rights of third parties, violates the law or other official provisions; or
 - the content of the advertisement is in violation of the German Advertising Standards Council (Deutscher Werber): in a complaint proceeding; or
 - it would be unreasonable for the Publisher to publish it due to the content, form, design, source or technical quality thereof; or
 - the advertisement contains advertising for third parties.
- 10.2. Advertising in connection with advertising of a third-party (i.e. "in Advertising") must in each case be accepted in advance by the Publisher in text form. The Publisher may charge a premium for "In Advertising" in accordance with the applicable rate card. The Customer shall be notified promptly if the contract is terminated pursuant to sentence 1 or if an advertisement is rejected pursuant to sentence 2.
- 10.3. The Publisher may temporarily suspend the publication of the advertisement if it has sufficient reason to suspect that the website to which the hyperlink is provided is no longer available for the internet content. The foregoing shall apply, in particular, in cases involving investigations or orders by government agencies or a warning letter from an internet service provider. The Customer shall be notified of the suspension and shall promptly remove the allegedly unlawful content or shall demonstrate on the website that the content is lawful and that the Customer will not offer the Customer to replace the advertisement with an alternative advertisement and/or with a hyperlink to another website subject to the periods under the applicable rate card. The Publisher may charge the Customer for any additional proven costs incurred as a result. The suspension shall be lifted as soon as the suspicion has been allayed.
- 10.4. The Publisher may in particular retract an advertisement that has already been published if the Customer subsequently changes the content thereof or if the Customer subsequently changes or changes the link's URL or where the content of the linked website is materially changed. In such case, the Customer has no right to a replacement or to charge, although the Publisher will retain its agreed payment claim.

Our general terms and conditions are available here: www.dfv.de/en/gab

- 11.1. The Customer shall transfer to the Publisher any and all copyright licenses, ancillary and other rights which are necessary in order to use the advertisement in any form of online media, specifically including the rights to reproduce, disseminate, transmit, broadcast, make publicly available, store in a database and to archive, and, and which are transferable to third parties in the context of payment of the contract in the scope necessary for implementing the order both on terms and on substance. The Customer shall be deemed to have assigned mentioned rights shall in all cases be transferred with no territorial limits. The aforementioned rights authorize insertion using all known technical means of advertising, the applicable period shall be 10 business days.
- 11.2. The Customer shall bear sole legal responsibility, specifically the responsibility under competition law, for the content of any and all advertisements provided by the Customer. The Customer shall warrant the content does not violate or infringe any law and warrants that the content of the respective advertisement does not impair the rights of third parties. The Customer shall warrant that it will not disseminate or refer to any immoral content during the contractual relationship.
- 11.3. The Customer represents and warrants that it holds all rights necessary to place the advertisement. The Customer shall indemnify the Publisher upon first demand against any and all third-party claims that may arise due to the violation or infringement of provisions of competition law, criminal law, copyright law or any other statutory provisions. The indemnification shall also extend to any expenses incurred for mounting a legal defence against third parties.
- 11.4. The Customer shall act in good faith to assist the Publisher in its efforts to defend against third-party claims by providing documents and information. The Publisher shall notify the Customer if any such third-party claims are asserted.
- 12. Warranty and liability
- 12.1. With the conclusion of a foreseeable requirements, the Publisher warrants the best possible reproduction of the advertisement consistent with customary technical standards in each case. The warranty shall be limited to the extent that the Customer is aware that based on the current state of the art technology it is not possible to reproduce an advertisement that is completely free of defects. The responsibility for the defect is assumed:
 - by use of unstable display software or hardware (e.g. browsers) or other technical means of advertising;
 - where the impairment in reproducing the advertisement does not result from the content of the advertisement;
 - by the Publisher or other operators; or
 - by computer failure due to system or network failure; or
 - by incomplete offers and/or offers not updated and stored on proxy servers or in the local cache;
 - by failure of the Publisher's ad server, the duration of which may not exceed 24 hours (continuous or in the aggregate) over a 30-day period from the contractually agreed start of the advertising insertion.
- 12.2. The warranty shall not include disturbances arising from computer defects or interrupts on the Customer's end and in the context of the purchase of the advertisement by the Customer and the Publisher.
- 12.3. If the Publisher's ad server goes down for a substantial period of time (more than 10% of the booked period) during which the Customer is not able to book advertising, the Customer and the Publisher shall endeavour to make good the undelivered at a later time or extend the period of the insertion, provided this does not affect the content of the insertion. In the event of an extension of the insertion period falls, the Customer shall be exempted from its payment obligations for the undelivered or for an excess of the media services requested during that period. Further claims are excluded.
- 12.4. If at the end of the publication period actual delivery has not reached the level of the media service ordered by the Publisher, the Customer shall be entitled to a compensatory booking. Upon expiry of the original insertion period, the website shall be deemed to have been interrupted as of 6:46 German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, "BGB").
- 12.5. The conditions for advertising in Digital Media (excluding ePaper and eMagazines, which are governed by the Standard Terms and Conditions for Advertising in Newspapers and Magazines and their Electronic Editions) shall be applicable.
- 12.6. The Publisher's contract shall be controlling for determining the media services. The Customer has the option to provide the Publisher's own statistics, provided that other figures must be applied. The Customer must notify the Publisher thereof in text form within ten days. To the extent the advertisement is delivered via the Publisher's servers, the Publisher shall be liable for its delivery. The notice period shall commence in a given case when the notification of the media services is sent to the Customer. If upon conclusion of a campaign the publisher's own statistics are used, the notice period shall commence in a given case when the notification of the media services is sent to the Customer. If upon conclusion of a campaign the publisher's own statistics are used, the notice period shall commence in a given case when the notification of the media services is sent to the Customer. If upon conclusion of a campaign the publisher's own statistics are used, the notice period shall commence in a given case when the notification of the media services is sent to the Customer. If upon conclusion of a campaign the publisher's own statistics are used, the notice period shall commence in a given case when the notification of the media services is sent to the Customer.
- 12.6. If the Publisher is at fault for insufficient reproduction quality of the advertisement, the Customer may demand a replacement or the contract price or instead of a replacement advertisement, albeit only to the extent of the impairment. If extending the publishing period or publishing a replacement advertisement is necessary, the Customer may claim a reduction in the contract price or may rescind the contract with respect to the portion of the media service not yet performed; any right of rescission is otherwise excluded. 12.7. The Publisher shall not bear the risk of data loss during transfer thereof outside the applicable rate card, or in the event of any warranty and/or liability for data security. Risk shall pass upon receipt of the advertisement on one of the Publisher's servers.- 12.8. If the Customer is not a member of a database of the Publisher but are delivered via a third-party server (redirects) and the Customer, as specified in section 12.6, has agreed to the use of the advertisement by sending the advertisement's URL on the Customer's or a third-party server, then the Publisher assumes no warranty and no liability for the delivery of the advertisement. The Customer for any other risks arising therefrom, such as for the defect-free delivery and quality of the advertisement and data security.

- 12.9. The Publisher shall exclude any liability for service disruptions or defects as soon as possible and shall endeavour to eliminate imminent impairments within a reasonable period.
- 12.10. The Publisher shall be liable for advertising to verify the accuracy, completeness or quality of the advertisements or the content thereof or whether they are up-to-date, serious and/or error free and assumes no express or implied warranty or liability thereof.
- 12.11. The Publisher shall be liable for compensatory damages only in cases of willful or grossly negligent conduct or the lack of a warranted quality.
- 12.12. In all cases involving the breach of a material contractual obligation, default or impossibility of performance, the Publisher shall be liable for reasonably foreseeable damages, but not for any special accidental damage or indirect or consequential damage. As against merchants, liability shall in any case be limited to ordinary and gross negligence and, in the case of its vicarious agents who are not legal representatives or executive employees, to willful conduct or recklessness.
- 12.13. The Publisher shall be liable for damages to the Customer's control. To the extent a material contractual obligation within the aforementioned meaning was negligently breached, the Publisher's liability shall be limited to the extent that the Customer or would have received for inserting the respective advertisement.
- 12.14. The foregoing shall not affect liability for damage caused by the use of the advertisement or under the German Product Liability Act (Produkthaftungsgesetz).
- 12.15. The Customer may not base any of its damage claims on defects in the Publisher's work if at fault for such defects pursuant to § 276, § 278 BGB.
- 12.16. Other than in cases of willful or grossly negligent conduct, the Publisher shall not be liable for liability or possibly of access, the display quality, for memory failure, interrupts or any delay, deletion or failed transmission during communication.
- 12.15. Section 12.14 shall not apply in states and jurisdictions which prohibit the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damage.
- 12.16. The Customer shall be liable for any and all consequences and adverse effects the Publisher suffers due to abuse or unlawful use of the advertisement, in particular if the Customer is aware of any of its other obligations under these Standard Terms and Conditions.
- 12.17. The above sections also apply to representatives of the Publisher who are in a contractual or intermediary relationship as well as to their vicarious agents.
- 12.18. To the extent the Publisher is obliged to pay damages, it shall also be liable for the costs of the legal proceedings in which the contract has not been concluded (litigant's damages); damages for non-performance are excluded.
- 12.19. In the event of an intervention in operations or events of force majeure, unlawful labour disputes, unlawful confiscation, traffic disturbances, general shortfalls of raw materials or energy etc., or in the event of a force majeure, the Publisher shall be exempted from its liability for the performance of its obligations, the Publisher has a claim to full payment for the published advertisements.
- 12.20. In the case of reciprocal commercial transactions, the Customer shall inspect the inserted advertisement promptly following the first insertion and shall give notice of any defects without undue delay. The notice period in the case of such commercial transactions shall commence with the insertion of the advertisement in the case of patient defects, and in the case of latent defects upon their discovery. If the Customer fails to give notice of defects, the insertion of the advertisement shall be deemed to be approved.
- 14. Fees, rate card and targeting criteria
- 14.1. The fee for the Publisher's services shall generally be determined based on the rates and applicable on the date of publication which is published online.
- 14.2. The rates quoted are net of statutory VAT.

- 14.3. Advertising agencies and other advertising brokers shall adopt the Publisher's rate cards in their quotes, contracts and invoices with the following provisions:
 - 14.4. Targeting criteria (limited by advertising medium and ad) shall be summarised in an overview. For each targeting criterion, the CPM (cost provided per saleable impression) or the amount reported in each case, provided no separate CPMs for targeting campaigns have been reported.
 - 15. Discounts
 - 15.1. Discounts shall be granted purely on the publication of the advertisement, special advertising campaigns or in the case of changes to the advertisement, are excepted herefrom. 15.2. Based on the Publisher's rate card, revenue-based discounts on "revenue", the
